

BRUCE RENIHAN
Executive Vice-President and Controller

CANADIAN IMPERIAL BANK OF COMMERCE
(CIBC)

Bruce is Executive Vice-President and Controller for CIBC with worldwide responsibility for oversight of internal control and for financial, regulatory and management accounting and reporting across the CIBC group of companies. Bruce is responsible for CIBC's SOX compliance efforts. CIBC has complied with the management reporting requirements of section 404 in both 2004 and 2005.

Bruce joined CIBC in 1987 as Vice-President and Controller of the Investment Bank and was later promoted to Senior Vice-President and Chief Financial Officer of the Investment Bank. He then assumed head-office level responsibilities for balance sheet management, financial planning and analysis, management accounting and for directing the overhaul of CIBC's financial information systems. In 1998, Bruce was appointed Senior-Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for CIBC World Markets, US Region.

Bruce is a Chartered Accountant (1973) with an MBA (Chicago, 1971) and a Bachelor of Commerce degree (McGill, 1969).